University of Louisville School of Medicine
Pediatric Grand Rounds

Fridays, Second Floor Auditorium - Norton Hospital
7:30 – 8 a.m.: Continental Breakfast and Announcements
8 – 9 a.m.: Grand Rounds Presentation

January 8, 2016

“Newborn Screening for Severe Combined Immunodeficiency in Kentucky”

Gerald Lee, MD
Assistant Professor
Section Chief, Allergy & Immunology
Department of Pediatrics
University of Louisville School of Medicine
Louisville, Kentucky

Learning Objectives:
1) Recognize the presentation of severe combined immunodeficiency (SCID)
2) Describe the method of SCID newborn screening using T-cell receptor excision circles (TREC)
3) Name reasons for a false positive or negative TREC screen
4) Manage a patient with a positive TREC newborn screen

Disclosure(s): Dr. Lee reports no disclosures.

January 15, 2016

“Refugees as Hospitalized Pediatric Patients”

Bethany Hodge, MD, MPH, FAAP
Assistant Professor
Director of the Global Education Office and Distinction in Global Health Track
Department of Pediatrics
University of Louisville School of Medicine
Louisville, Kentucky

Learning Objectives:
1) Review definitions of refugees and other types of immigrants
2) Examine special health issues that may arise in hospitalized refugee children
3) Consider the social, cultural and language needs that also arise during hospitalization
4) Learn about local community resources for physicians working with refugee families

Disclosure(s): Dr. Hodge reports no disclosures.

ACCREDITATION: This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of Norton Healthcare and the University of Louisville Department of Pediatrics. Norton Healthcare is accredited by the Kentucky Medical Association (KMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. DESIGNATION: Norton Healthcare designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
University of Louisville School of Medicine
Pediatric Grand Rounds

Fridays, Second Floor Auditorium - Norton Hospital
7:30 – 8 a.m.: Continental Breakfast and Announcements
8 – 9 a.m.: Grand Rounds Presentation

January 22, 2016
“State of the Department of Pediatrics”

Gerard Rabalais, MD, MHA
Professor and Chairman
Billy F. Andrews Endowed Chair in Pediatrics
Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs
Chief of Staff, Kosair Children’s Hospital
University of Louisville School of Medicine
Louisville, Kentucky

Learning Objectives:
1) To know the challenges faced by the department
2) To understand our goals for 2016

Disclosure(s): Dr. Rabalais reports no disclosures.

January 29, 2016
7th Annual Butterflies for Maddie Lectureship
“Evaluation and Long-Term Management of Children with Congenital Diaphragmatic Hernia”

Howard B. Panitch, MD
Professor of Pediatrics
The Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania
Director of Clinical Programs
Division of Pulmonary Medicine
The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Learning Objectives:
1) Identify pulmonary and non-pulmonary factors that contribute to long-term morbidity in children with congenital diaphragmatic hernia
2) Understand long-term implications of congenital diaphragmatic hernia on subsequent lung growth and development
3) Identify the effects of pulmonary hypertension on morbidity and mortality in children with congenital diaphragmatic hernia
4) Become familiar with newer techniques being used to ameliorate severe pulmonary hypertension in fetuses with congenital diaphragmatic hernia

Disclosure(s): Dr. Panitch reports no disclosures.

Bad Weather and Grand Rounds Policy: Grand Rounds will be cancelled if UofL classes and/or offices are closed or if their opening is delayed until 9 a.m. or later on a Friday. Please check the UofL website (louisville.edu), or call 502-852-5555 and press 8 to hear a recorded message, for closings or delays during inclement weather.